Contact

Contact the clubs or centers nearby and ask a few questions to help you decide which one is the best fit for you.

Questions to Ask

- What are the fees involved? (Local and regional dues and costs will vary.)
- What activities are offered?
- When and where does the club/center meet?
- What are the expectations for members and parents?

How It Works

When a member joins a local Pony Club or riding center, they also join the region where that club or center belongs, along with the national organization. The United States Pony Clubs, Inc. (USPC) is divided into 41 regions.

About Us

Pony Club teaches horse care, riding, and safe horsemanship, with instruction in 11 different English and Western riding sports.
