

Pony Club®

Where it all begins

Registration for the 2026 USPC Convention, sponsored by Elizabeth Hamill Bramsen, 1961 A Alum, Wayne-Du Page Hunt Pony Club; and Via Nova Training, is now open! Registration is open to any USPC membership level along with non-members, so there is a registration type for anyone who loves horses. Customize your experience and choose between an All-Access, Weekend, or Day Pass.

All-Access Pass

Beginning with our most comprehensive registration, an All-Access Pass is the best choice for those who wish to experience the 2026 USPC Convention from start to finish, January 29–February 1.

- Access to RS/DC/CA leadership trainings on Thursday (January 29)
- Buffet lunch Thursday, Friday, and Saturday
- Access to all activities and events, such as the hands-on Horse Management Room, sponsored by the University of Louisville; Anatomy Room; educational workshops, and trade fair
- Ability to purchase additional meal tickets for events, including the Saturday Night Banquet, National Youth Congress/Academy of Achievement Reception, and the RS/DC/CA Leadership Dinner Event
- Continental breakfast at the Saturday Meeting of the Corporation

Weekend Pass

Weekend attendees can expect all of the great things that the All-Access Pass will allow you to do, without access to the leadership training sessions, January 30–February 1.

- Access to all activities and events, such as the hands-on Horse Management Room, sponsored by the University of Louisville; Anatomy Room; educational workshops, and trade fair
- Buffet lunch Friday and Saturday
- Ability to purchase additional meal tickets for events, including the Saturday Night Banquet and National Youth Congress/Academy of Achievement

Reception

- Continental breakfast at the Saturday Meeting of the Corporation

Day Pass

Just passing through? Day Passes are a great option for those who will not be able to stay the entire weekend.

- Available on Saturday (January 31) and Sunday (February 1)
- Educational workshops
- Horse Management Room, sponsored by the University of Louisville
- Anatomy Room
- Trade Fair

Day Pass attendees do not have the opportunity to buy additional meal tickets.
